

Minimal invasive technique for the rehabilitation of the atrophic jaws with a reduced number of implants

Protocols for the documentation of the clinical case of

The implant patient

Preparation of the implant site and primary stability

Insertion of prosthetically guided implant

BI of tilted implants