

Mansoura Nursing Journal(MNJ) Guide For Authors

The bulletin of Mansoura nursing journal focuses on research papers and professional discussion .papers That have a scientific theoretical and philosophical manuscript must have not been published or accepted for publication previously. All articles are peer viewed by at least two researchers expert in the field of the submitted paper.

Preparation of manuscript:

- Three copies should be submitted with the following format:-
 - *Should be printed on A4 , 80gm paper ,1.5 line space with 2.5cm margins with two column ,12pages and inclusive references.
- Enclosed CD containing the manuscripts.
- Title of manuscripts :should be , concise and include the name of author(s),professional title and institution(s) affiliation.
- Abstract: not exceeding 260 words ,should be included. it should state the aim of the study, subjects and methods and important findings. Below the abstract provide key words.
- Introduction: it should include relevant literature related to the problem of study, signification of the study and its relevance to nursing.
- Subjects and Methods: should include research design, setting subjects of the study, tools of data collection and procedure.
- Results :tables, figures or graphs should be typed on one page and relative placement should be noted in the text.
- Discussion: discussion of the findings with other relevant studies in the field of study.
- Conclusion.
- Recommendations.
- Acknowledgment.
- References: The Vancouver style should be followed.